

European IT & Software Excellence Awards 2018 announced

- Pan-European Awards for ISVs, Solution Providers, VARs, Systems Integrators, Software Vendors, Service Providers and Distributors
- Recognising Excellence in IT and Telecoms Channels, Software and Solutions

[London, 30 October 2017] IT Europa announced today that it will stage the European IT & Software Excellence Awards 2018 in London on 19 April 2018. Now in their tenth year, the European IT & Software Excellence Awards have been designed to recognise and reward excellence in European software development and IT and Telecoms solutions provision. Firmly established as Europe's most prestigious IT Channel Awards, the European IT & Software Excellence Awards will bring together leading ISVs, Solution Providers and Systems Integrators from across Europe to demonstrate their ability to provide industry-leading IT solutions for their customers.

The awards are split into three sections. The first set of awards is for Independent Software Vendors (ISVs) and software developers and highlights the applications that they have developed and delivered for their customers. The second set of awards, for Systems Integrators, Solution VARs and MSPs acknowledges their skill and endeavour in delivering world class IT solutions for their customers. The final set of awards, for Suppliers, highlights those vendors, distributors and service providers who best support their channel partners to deliver excellence.
